About A Moving Sound

Fusing traditional influences with a global sensibility, award winning ensemble A Moving Sound (Sheng Don 聲動) from Taiwan, built a worldwide following through their joyous mix of original music and dance. Featuring the distinctive timbres of the erhu (Taiwanese fiddle) and zhong ruan (lute), and the transcendent vocals of Mia Hsieh, A Moving Sound has devised a unique and compelling style that is all their own – a Taiwanese whirlwind that veers between the meditative and the exuberant with irrepressible spirit.

A Moving Sound has been featured on BBC Radio 3, National Public Radio in the U.S., and on The Discovery Channel. They have performed in twenty countries including The Kennedy Center, W.O.M.A.D. (picked as a festival highlight by London Financial Times) and the Melbourne International Arts Festival. A Moving Sound's music is distributed internationally through ARC Music/NAXOS Records.

Selected Reviews

Tom Pryor music supervisor for NationalGeographic.com
"A Moving Sound is one of the most original outfits working in the world music arena today."

The New York Public Theater
“an exciting development in the progression of both traditional and contemporary Taiwanese/Chinese music…..joyous, evocative and enchanting”

Marco Werman, BBC Public Radio International
"one of the few groups offering truly creative music from Asia……A Moving Sound seems to have found it’s opportunity!”

Jacques Monnier, Paléo Festival artistic director, Nyon, Switzerland
“A Moving Sound was absolutely brilliant”

Dick Dixon, Festival Director, Warwick Folk Festival “Their musical ability was outstanding! It was great to see such a variety of unusual instruments being played with skill, and was so entertaining that our audience gave them a standing ovation.”

Lauren Pratt, Producer of Music, REDCAT /Roy and Edna Disney, Cal Arts Theater, LA
“an enthralling, engaging performance which seamlessly mixed timeless music from the heart of Taiwanese culture with a contemporary flair…… A Moving Sound is a musical plum blossom gift from Taiwan: evocatively beautiful, with a strong, resilient core.”

Daniel Truckey, Coordinator, Northern Nights, Northern Michigan University
“A Moving Sound far surpassed my expectations both as performers and people. Their performance was one of the most powerful and entertaining concerts I’ve seen in some time.”

Correne Anderson Program Coordinator, University of North Carolina, Asheville
"the music transports the listener to a timeless, location-less space .... A gorgeous combination of cultural traditions, innovation and artistic composition, their live show and ability to read and respond to the audience is superb."

Department of Cultural Affairs, Chicago
“Chicago’s reaction to A Moving Sound was a joy to see”

Lucy Duran on BBC Radio 3's "World Routes"

"Mia Hsieh is a great young woman singer putting a new spin on old traditions with her group A Moving Sound. "

Nashville Scene Critic's Pick

"Taipei-based group A Moving Sound blends musical traditions from Taiwan, China and other Asian countries, and the result is unique and often haunting. Singer Mia Hsieh has a dreamy, almost hypnotic voice, and her accompanying musicians are every bit as intriguing"

Global Rhythm Magazine CD REVIEW Chris Heim

"A Moving Sound provides both an entryway into eastern music and artful expression of the universal human condition."

Theodore Levin, Professor of Music, Dartmouth College, USA

"A Moving Sound courageously weaves together the multiple and disparate cultural strands that make Taiwan a unique source of contemporary world music."
